Alison Weir

It is with great pleasure that we welcome Alison Weir as our guest speaker at the 2008 Literary Dinner.

Alison is well known as a writer of ‘popular’ history and fiction. Her passion for history started at an early age and she is now an acknowledged expert on the Tudor period and the medieval Queens of England - to quote her own words ‘History is full of wonderful stories and amazing characters’.

Educated at the City of London School for Girls, she trained as a teacher and has worked as a civil servant. From 1991 to 1997 she ran a school for children with learning disabilities. She is married with two children.
