New Hall School requires, from September 2018:

Housemaster

The Housemaster will have overall pastoral responsibility for the well-being of boarding students within a boys' boarding house, under the leadership of the Head of Boarding. The Housemaster is expected to understand and be prepared to commit to the Catholic ethos of the school and innovative diamond model educational structure, with a mixture of single-sex and co-educational teaching. Public examination results at GCSE and A Level are excellent.

New Hall is a warm, welcoming and supportive environment. With a caring and supportive department, investment in CPD and a forward-thinking leadership team, this is an exciting time to be joining the school.

The successful candidate will have experience working in a boarding school. Excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to relate to boys is essential. This is a residential post, for teaching or non-teaching applicants.

A competitive salary will be offered, dependent on skills and experience.

Closing Date: 4pm, Wednesday 21 March 2018

Interview Date: Tuesday 27 March 2018

Excellent benefits • free parking • superb working environment • lunch & break time refreshments

New Hall is committed to safeguarding pupils. There will be an enhanced DBS check prior to appointment.
