New Hall School requires, with effect from September 2019 or January 2020:

Teacher of Art

Competitive salary, plus the possibility of an additional management allowance for a middle management responsibility, excellent benefits & CPD

A well-qualified graduate is required to teach girls and boys Art from Key Stage 3 to A Level. This post offers a valuable, professional opportunity to contribute to the success of this dynamic and forward thinking School. The ability to teach Games or an additional subject may be an advantage but is not essential. All candidates are expected to understand and support of the ethos of a Catholic boarding & day school.

The School operates a distinctive and innovative diamond model educational structure, with a mixture of single-sex and co-educational teaching. Public examination results at GCSE and A Level are excellent. The school was assessed as outstanding in its inspections in 2014 (boarding, ISI), 2016 (whole school Educational Quality and Focussed Compliance, ISI); and 2018 (Denominational, Diocese of Brentwood).

There is a possibility of renting a room in a shared School house, adjacent to the campus, for £400pcm.

Closing Date: Midday, Wednesday 24 April 2019
